Father Stanley L. Jaki is a Benedictine priest, theologian and physicist. He was Gifford Lecturer (1974-75, 1975-76) and, in 1987, received the Templeton Prize. Father Jaki is the author of over forty books — many of them on the history and philosophy of science. He has written books on the Catholic faith as well. In addition, he established the Real View Books series to reprint books that are significant to the understanding and defense of Christian doctrine and culture.
